

Celebrate Divine Chocolate
by Eva from Bradfield Primary School

As I sank my teeth into the soft, silky first bite

The melt in the mouth,

Nice, tasty, lovely

Mouth-watering,

Luscious,

Scrumptious, divine

YUMMY YUM

good, beautiful, mellow

Appetising, perfect chocolate

EXPLODED with flavour!

It made my tongue tingle, excitedly.

It frolicked and flipped as it slipped down my throat,

As it slipped,

It told me stories from afar!

It told me about the cocoa beans and the famous Fairtrade.

It whipped me up in a chocolatey adventure

To Ghana.

I waved at some cocoa bean farmers.

They said to me

*“Celebrate Divine Chocolate!
Because of Fairtrade
45% of the money is ours!
Celebrate, Celebrate, Celebrate with us tonight!”*

*I woke up suddenly and said,
“Oh it was only a dream.”
I rolled out of bed....
The adventure was over
But, out of my eye I saw
A shiny red wrapper glistening with gold.*
